

Thursday, April 7th 2022

10.00-10.10 Welcome

Arndt Brendecke

(Dean of the Faculty of History and Arts, LMU München)

10.10-10.30 Introduction

Ricard Torra-Prat (LMU München) & Joan Pubill-Brugués (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona/Avignon Université)

10.30-10.50 Opening lecture

Arndt Brendecke (LMU München):

“Reflections on Corruption and Control from the Perspective of the Cultures of Vigilance”

Coffee Break

11.00-12.30

Mark J. Knights (University of Warwick):

“Corruption and Conceptual Change in Britain”

Peter Roethke (University of Pennsylvania):

“Defining Corruption in the Empire:

The Gülich Revolt in Cologne, 1680–1686”

Otto Ulbricht (CAU Kiel):

“The Pietist Campaign against Corruption, c. 1660–1690”

Debate

12.30-14.30 – Lunch

Thursday, April 7th 2022

14.30-16.00

Tanmay Misra (London School of Economics):

“«Corruption» in India: From the British Raj to the License Raj”

Lluís-Ferran Toledano & Gemma Rubí (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona):

“A National Culture of Corruption? Spain in Transnational Perspective”

Silvia Marton & Alexandra Oprea (University of Bucharest):

“Transitions from the Old Regime and the Redefinition of «Corruption» in Central-South-East Europe (1800–1850s)”

Debate

Coffee Break

16.20-17.50

Christoph Rosenmüller (Middle Tennessee

State University): “Indigenous Lawsuits against Colonial Authorities in Mexico, ca. 1680–1725: Corruption before the Sattelzeit”

Otto Linde & Ronald Kroeze (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam):

“A Small Nation with a Big Empire: The Spatial and Temporal Dimensions of Corruption within the Context of Modern Imperialism: the Case of the Dutch Empire, 1848–1930”

Jens Ivo Engels (TU Darmstadt):

“Some Theses on the History of Corruption in the Modern Era”

Debate

19.00 – Dinner

Friday, April 8th 2022

10.00-11.40

Ivana Horbec (Croatian Institute of History):

“The Perception of Corruption in Croatian Public Service in 17th and 18th Centuries: Tradition and Reform”

Maud Harivel (CEDRE Paris):

“Election and Corruption in the Republic of Venice”

Niels Grüne (Universität Innsbruck):

“Wielding a Two-Edged Sword: Constitutional Struggle, Political Modernisation and the Ambiguity of Corruption Rhetoric in Eighteenth-Century Württemberg”

Debate

Coffee Break

12.00-13.10

Cosmin S. Dogaru (University of Bucharest):

“Election Campaigns, Networks, and Power in the Early 20th Century Romania. «Satisfied Candidates and Rewarded Voters»”

Cristina Ramos & Diego José Fera (Universidad de Huelva):

“The Naturalization of Political Corruption in Spanish Literature: The Generation of 1868”

Debate

13.10-15.30 – Lunch

Friday, April 8th 2022

15.30-17.00

Amorina Villareal & Pilar Ponce (Universidad Complutense de Madrid):

“Anti-corruption Practices as a Political Tool in the Monarchy of Spain during the 17th Century”

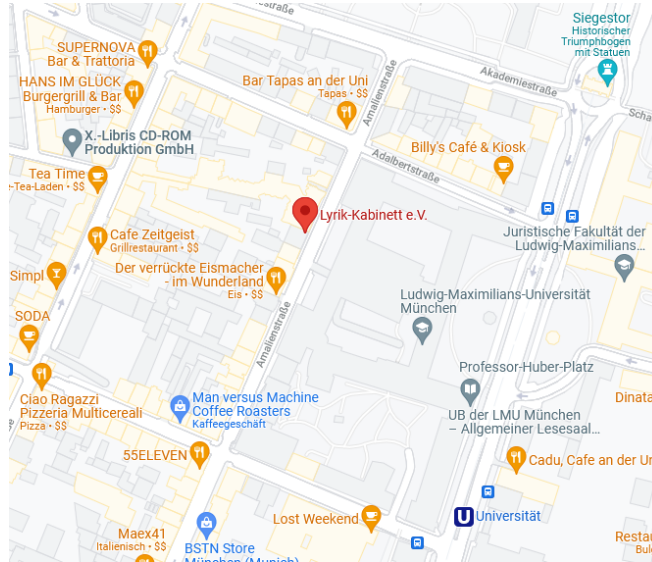

Jean Garrigues (Université d’Orléans):

“Wilson and Panama: two Corruption Scandals at the Beginning of the Troisième République, 1887–1892”

Debate

17.00-17.30 Conclusion

Arndt Brendecke, Ricard Torra-Prat & Joan Pubill-Brugués

Venue:

Stiftung Lyrik Kabinett
Amalienstraße 83a
80799 München

Contact & Registration:

corruptionmodernity2022@lrz.uni-muenchen.de

Sponsored by:

Unterstützt von / Supported by

Alexander von Humboldt
Stiftung / Foundation

Corruption and the Modernisation of the State: Ideas, Discourses and Practices in the Pre-Modern Era and Beyond (1600–1930)

LMU München, April 7-8th 2022

Organisation

Prof. Dr. Arndt Brendecke

Dr. Ricard Torra-Prat

Dr. Joan Pubill-Brugués